

Recognition Festival

→ 1 & 2 MARCH

SATURDAY 1ST MARCH

9:30–11.30am	NSW Reconciliation Council AGM	Members only Annual General Meeting
12pm–1pm	Festival opening	Including Welcome to Country, Smoking Ceremony and a performance by the renowned Doonooch Dancers
1pm–2pm	Respect, Recognition and Reconciliation	A forum with guests Mick Gooda, Gerry Moore and Lachlan McDaniel.
2pm–3.30pm	Basket Weaving	Come and share in this opportunity to learn more about Aboriginal culture from local Aboriginal people who are passing on their traditional knowledge and skills in this basket-weaving session
3.30pm–5pm	Bushfoods, medicine and survival skills with Galamban	Would you be able to survive in the bush? Find and prepare foods and medicine on need? ... We can! Let us show you how and where... it's extraordinary!
5pm–6pm	Constitutional Recognition: What can local reconciliation groups do?	This members-only workshop is designed to give members a chance to discuss how local reconciliation groups can support the Constitutional Recognition movement and connect with other groups.
5pm–6pm	Beach yarns and art workshop	Join the team from Recognise down on the beach for a yarn and fun activities.
6pm	BBQ & performance by Jervis Bay School Dance Group	Grab a free snag and check out some traditional dancing by local primary students
7pm–8pm	Musical performance by Frank Yamma	Sure to be a highlight of the festival, Frank Yamma is joining us from the Central Desert to share his musical talent. An extraordinary songwriter and guitarist, Yamma has an incredible voice, rich, deep and resonant.
8pm–9.30pm	Campfire yarns with Galamban	Join Galamban around the campfire for billy tea and damper, and listen to the stories the beginnings and beliefs the local culture.
9.30pm	The Sapphires	Grab your picnic rugs and join us for a screening under the stars of the family-friendly film, "The Sapphires".

SUNDAY 2ND MARCH

7am–8am	Yoga	Nothing beats starting the day with some yoga in a picturesque environment. Qualified Jivamukti Yoga instructor Karo Tak will be running an hour session suitable for all ages and abilities.
8am–10am	Coastal Walk with Toonkoo Cultural tours	Join Joe for a coastal walk to an ancient shell midden. Hear the traditional history of the Wreck Bay area and learn from a cultural interpretation of the sights around you.
10am–4pm	Free time	Spend the rest of the day exploring the beautiful Booderee National Park. Go for a swim, head of a hike or try your hand at fishing. Campsite closes at 4pm.